Today, we wear pink and dance in honour of our biggest cheerleader and number one fan, Miss Kristina.

Her kindness, strength, and unwavering support inspired so many within our studio community. Though she is deeply missed every day, she continues to inspire us to dance harder, love bigger, spread kindness further, and strive to be the very best versions of ourselves.

This one is for her. ♡

Keep scrolling to learn a bit more about our Class of 2026 and the amazing accomplishments of all of our dancers throughout the season!

EDF | Class of 2026

Karter Bishop

Plans After Grad:

I plan on getting a job and travelling for a bit

Something Dance Taught You/Favourite EDF Memory:

To be confident and that success comes from persistence. My favourite moment at EDF is competing in competitions and Miss Alley getting Mcflurries.

Something Positive to pass on:

Focus on personal growth rather than comparison

Carmina Gulli

Plans After Grad:

After graduation I plan on exploring cosmetic schooling.

Something Dance Taught You/Favourite EDF Memory

Dance has taught me how to pay attention to details. My favorite EDF memory will always be the amazing dance family.

Something Positive to pass on:

To all the younger dancers I would say, dance for yourself because you matter.

Shaya Hamilton

Plans After Grad:

Completely my hair styling certificate

Something Dance Taught You/Favourite EDF Memory

It's given me the confidence I never thought I had to perform in front of people

Something Positive to pass on:

Pick the dances that make you the most happy

Izzy Labossiere

Plans After Grad:

I plan on continuing my dance journey, and going to college for cosmetology. While I'm still unsure on what exactly, I have been interested in going into a beauty profession for the longest time.

Something Dance Taught You/Favourite EDF Memory

Something dance has taught me over the years was to be true to myself, and has given me the ability to express things I may not be able to show as openly.

Something Positive to pass on:

Dancers, always remember that your body weight does not take away from your talent. As a bigger dancer, I have always compared myself to thinner girls and often failed to realize the worth I had; skinny or not skinny, you matter as a dancer, and it doesn't diminish your quality of dance or ability to express yourself. Not by one bit. ♡

Madison Haydey

Plans After Grad:

I am going to the UofA to hopefully pursue neuroscience.

Something Dance Taught You/Favourite EDF Memory

Dance has truly shaped who I am but the one thing I wish to carry with me in the future is to appreciate every moment, no matter if it isn't necessarily the moment you want to be in. Throughout my dance career I have found myself in many rooms that fall short of expectations but I wish that I was able to fully appreciate every room while still wanting to grow and aspiring for more. I have since learned that settling and growth can co-exist, and that it is important not to let a circumstance define you because it truly is only temporary.

Something Positive to pass on:

Always try and remember your "why". Why do you dance? Why do you show up for class every week and work endlessly towards a goal? It is truly the answer to these questions that will get you through the hard times. This will give you motivation to keep working when you're tired, continue when you want to quit and push you to grow to your full potential.

Grace Pflughaupt

Plans After Grad:

I am attending the University of Toronto for life sciences this upcoming fall with hopes of becoming a doctor one day.

Something Dance Taught You/Favourite EDF Memory

Dance has taught me the importance of treasuring things for life. I know I will always have dance and my EDF family for life, as well as all of the friends I've made along the way.

Something Positive to pass on:

Something positive to pass on to younger dancers is that it isn't all about the scores and trophies, its about the lessons learnt and personal things you take away from the experience, because those are the things you remember.

Anjali Raj

Plans After Grad:

University of Alberta for Engineering

Something Dance Taught You/Favourite EDF Memory

My favourite memory was when covid was coming to an end, and we had to do dance practices in the parking lot.

Something Positive to pass on:

Some of the best memories you make, will not be at the competitions you win at, but rather the ones that you have the most fun at. So don't forget to have fun!!

Haley Self

Plans After Grad:

I will be attending the University of Alberta to complete a bachelors of science with a minor in business. I am also excited to study abroad for a year in London or New York.

Something Dance Taught You/Favourite EDF Memory

Dance has taught me the importance of finding my own path in life and doing what makes me happy and proud, rather than following everyone else. Along with offering many beautiful ways to express myself, dance has shown me that personal growth comes from individuality and hard work, not comparison.

Something Positive to pass on:

Do what brings you closer to your goals, rather than what others expect or tell you to do.

Sai'jana Vassell

Plans After Grad:

My plans after grad are probably gonna be doing some upgrading then move to Toronto for schooling and hopefully continue dance

Something Dance Taught You/Favourite EDF Memory:

My favourite memory at EDF will always be with my Ally yelling at me to go more full out it taught me to go more full out with dancing and I will forever be grateful for Ms Ally

Something positive you want to pass on:

Something I would pass down to the younger dancers is to always push yourself harder and to just always have fun

Anastasia Werk

Plans After Grad:

Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree majoring in theatre production

Something Dance Taught You/Favourite EDF Memory

Life is better with rhinestones

Something Positive to pass on:

There is a dance class for everyone. You just have to find your style.

Andrea Brodeur Memorial Award

Presented in memory of Andrea Brodeur a loving and dedicated dance mom and longstanding member of our EDFPA. This award recognizes a senior dancer with an incredible lasting light and impact on our studio. They shine bright, in service of others and they pass this light on freely and readily to the next generation.

Miss Kristina Spirit Award

Presented in memory of Miss Kristina whose energy, kindness and love of dance left a lasting impact on everyone around her. This award recognizes a dancer who embodies that same spirit, someone who lifts others up, cheers the loudest for their teammates, offers support when it's needed most and brings positive energy into every class and performance.

To our EDF Families and Friends

Thank you for joining us as we celebrate Season 43 and another incredible year of dance, growth, and community. It is truly a privilege to be part of your dancer's journey, and we are so grateful for the support, trust, and encouragement you have shown throughout the season.

This year has been filled with hard work, laughter, friendship, and unforgettable moments. We are endlessly proud of our dancers — not only for the way they perform on stage, but for the kindness, resilience, and heart they bring into the studio each day.

It truly takes a village, and we are so thankful to have you as part of ours.

Have a wonderful summer!
See you soon as we welcome Season 44!
